

COMMUNITY LIBRARY PACKAGE 2024

RUNNING YOUR LIBRARY

How does it work?

The Community Library you receive is completely self-running and relies on the organization or unit to simply take a photo and send out an email to their members to donate their favourite books if the library gets over run. Below are some of the key aspects to owning your community Library.

The Lending system

Your community Library will come with 3 x posters that show how the lending system works. Simply grab a book to read at home, work or on the go and return once finished. You are also encouraged to promote members bringing in their own books that they love as this will foster a sense of ownership and custodianship over the library!

Will there be enough books?

Some people are concerned about having enough books to keep the system running. However, as it turns out, there are plenty of books out there and readers are more than happy to share their favourite literature by donating it to the library, especially if they think it will have the same impact on someone else!

What about people taking books and not bringing them back!?

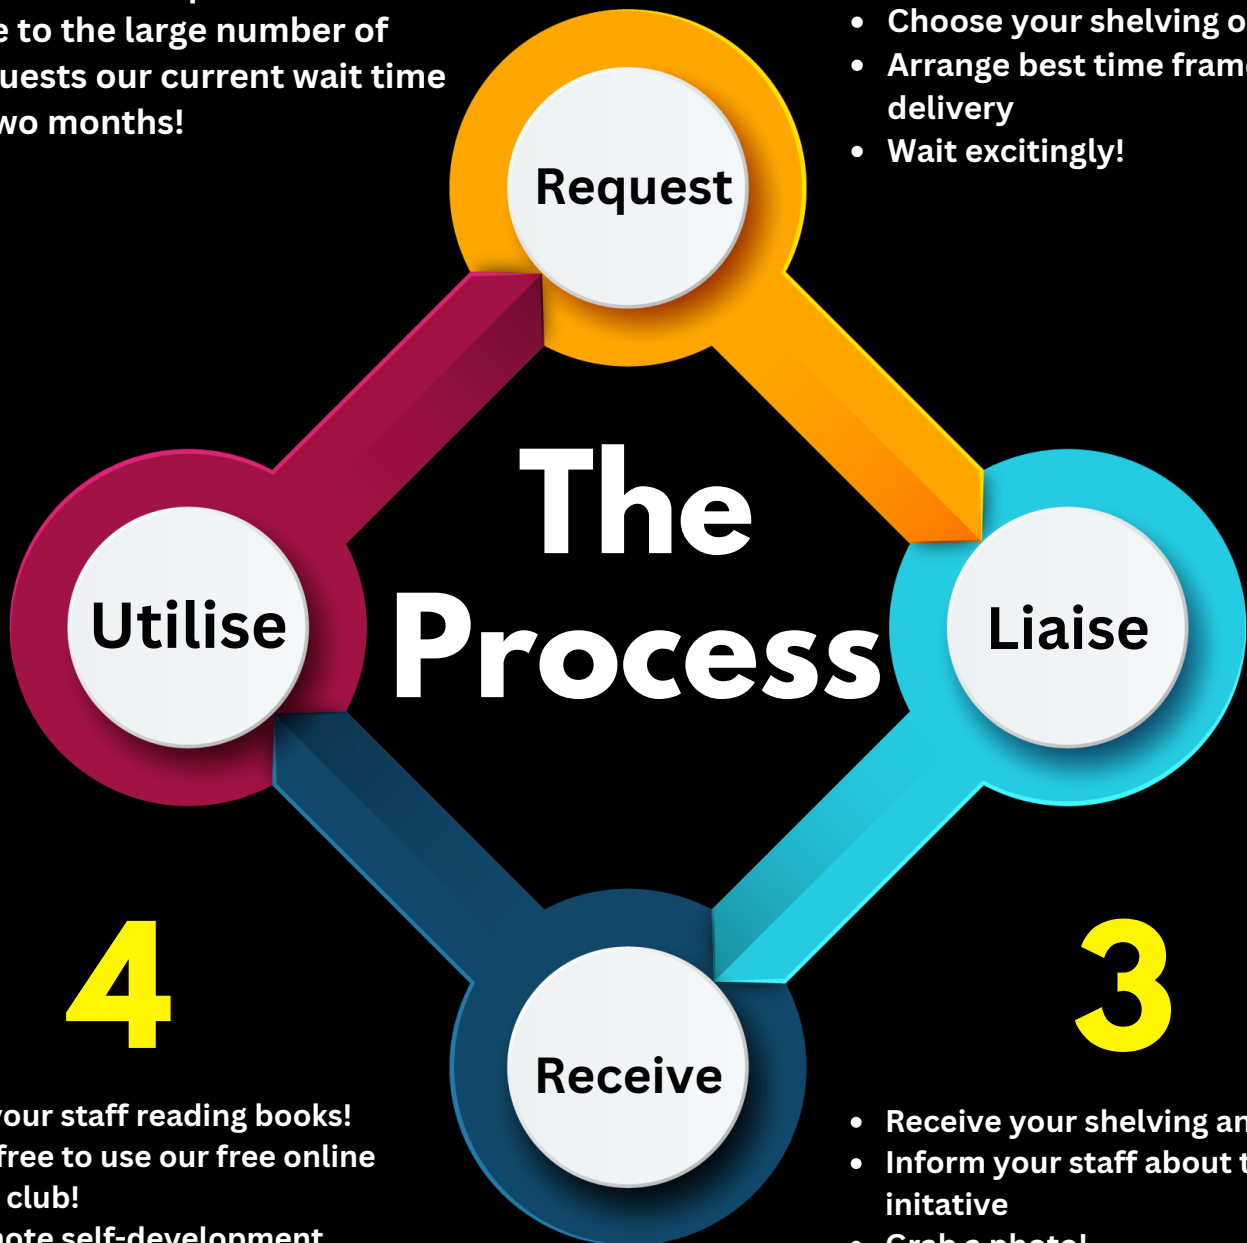

By Brothers and Books donating the first amount of books at the community library, you start your initiative with plenty of books to last! There is a famous saying that those who read don't steal! This is very much true, but we know sometimes a book is too good to let go! You can keep your community library flowing by holding a book drive, a book fair or simply by asking your team what they're reading and having a book club which will no doubt get some more great reads going! Encourage the honor system to help ensure the best books are returned again and again.
